

Washington Heritage Museums

Educational Video Support Intern

Position Summary:

Washington Heritage Museums is seeking a qualified intern to assist with creating online educational videos.

The intern will work in a small nonprofit environment, and gain experience in various aspects of videography as well as museum education. The online video content will interpret WHM collections, buildings, and gardens.

Responsibilities:

- Create video content for the WHM webpage and social media accounts.
- Contact and collaborate with local educators in determining appropriate content for the target age group(s).
- Assist in the promotion of the WHM webpage to local schools and homeschool groups.
- Create resources (lessons, handouts, etc.) for use by educators and students after viewing the video content.
- Create handouts and/or teacher resources for educators to access and/or use after viewing the video content.

Requirements:

Washington Heritage Museums is looking for an undergraduate student in the Fredericksburg with a strong interest in history, education, and videography. Applicants should have excellent verbal and written communications skills, and knowledge of elementary or museum education. Experience in YouTube, Canva, and other editing platforms is a plus. PowerPoint, Word and Excel experience is also desirable.

Academic Background:

Education, History, Museums Studies, Historic Preservation, Digital Studies

Transportation:

All WHM locations are within a short walking distance of the University of Mary Washington. A vehicle is not required to perform this position.

Compensation:

This position is uncompensated. WHM will coordinate academic credit with the intern's educational institution.